

HOW WILL YOU CELEBRATE?

100 YEARS OF SCOUTING
Celebrating the Adventure ★ Continuing the Journey

The 100⁺¹ Challenge is your chance to celebrate, participate, and share in the fun and excitement of the Centennial Celebration of the Boy Scouts of America.

The requirements are simple:

1. Participate in 100 days of Scouting from October 17, 2009 to October 17, 2010
2. Recruit one other person to join Scouting to share the fun with you!

You can participate simply by attending den, pack, patrol, troop, team, or crew meetings. You can even count working on an activity pin with your parents or working on a merit badge. We want you to also count going camping, selling popcorn, and working on service projects. Sounds easy doesn't it?

So complete the commitment card below, give it to your adult leader, and start counting down your days to success! Don't forget- you need to recruit one of your friends, classmates, or co-workers to join in the fun. We'll see you at Peterloon 2010 when we celebrate everyone's success!

Since 1910, youth and adults have enjoyed that Scouting has to offer, so let's celebrate together as we commit to 100⁺¹ Challenge

Count me in! I commit to the 100⁺¹ Challenge I want to celebrate 100 years of Scouting and earn my 100⁺¹ Challenge patch!
